There's Still Time To Take Advantage of the Moose Snack Program!

Although it's December 17th, every Ohio Lodge can still place orders for the Moose Snack program. Shipments of the products are intended for January 1, 2009.

Let us remind you that you will make 50% profit and the vendor will be providing 10% back to Moose Charities as well. This 10% does not come out of the profit; it is straight from the vendor.

St. John's River FL Moose Legion 227 Shares A Great Motto!

Pilgrim Everett C Goodwin, of New Smyrna beach FL Lodge 1835 wrote the following motto of the St. John's River Moose Legion 227:

Moose Legionnaires separate the men from the boys.

A proud Moose Legionnaire goes that extra mile to aid our children at Mooseheart and our seniors at Moosehaven.

He is proud to volunteer his time and donates towards our Lodge and Community Service projects.

He is proud to sign up his friends and family as new members.

He is proud to work on, and attend, functions for the Lodge, Moose Legion, and Higher Degree.

He is the proud Moose Legionnaire that you see at District, State and International meetings.

He is a proud Fraternalist, abides by the Ritual, and has gained much wisdom through age.

He is proud to become a Lodge Chairman or Officer and aspires toward a personal goal of becoming a Fellow and then Pilgrim.

When he reaches all these goals, you will still see that proud Moose Legionnaire volunteering at all levels.

Special Events Coverage Is A Better-Safe-Than- Sorry Requirement!

On December 4th, an e-mail went out to every unit, after which a substantial increase in the number of Special Events Coverage orders. Many Lodges seem simply uncertain about when the coverage is required.

Please remember that the Department of Legal and Risk Management (phone: 6301859-2000 EXT 6637) at Moose International stands ready to help you whenever you are unsure whether your Lodge's event requires Special event Coverage. Just call and ask!

In an e-mail from the Helpdesk, dated December 12th, we read that "In the short time since special event coverage was mandated, we already have pending litigation against a Lodge arising out of a fight during a 'Special Event.' This Lodge had previously purchased special event coverage for prior events, but for whatever reason, the coverage was not obtained for the event in question. This Lodge is now on the hook for potentially a million dollars plus legal fees.

"Lodges obtaining special events coverage are purchasing it at a pace indicating that fewer than 2,000 special event gatherings occur fraternity-wide in an entire year. That's just slightly over one special event, per lodge, per year. It is highly suspect that we do not have more of these events when some Lodges are holding two or more of these per week!

"Any time a gathering of people, members and/or non-members, meet in a Lodge facility, for an organized purpose that is not directly Moose related - such as a birthday party, graduation party, post-funeral gathering, wedding reception, family reunion or any number of other non-Moose purposes - AND alcohol is consumed by any of those people, it is a 'special event' and special event coverage is required.

In most cases, if any pre-planning and/or reservation of the Lodge's facilities is required on the part of a member, regardless of whether the facilities are provided free or at a fixed price, AND alcohol is sold, given away or provided in any manner to persons attending this function, it's a 'special event.'

If a Lodge is not certain whether special event coverage is required, they should contact the Legal and Risk Management Department at 630-859-20000 EXT 6637."
