'Texas Hold'em' Poker Player,
To Check This Out and Write
Your Next Year's Calendar!

While the information below will have passed the December 1, 2009 deadline for entry, poker players of the Ohio State Moose Association might well be advised to go on-line to determine next year's tournament dates and place.

The Inaugural Moose International 'Texas Hold'em' Poker Tournament has topped 300 participants as of November 23rd. The tournament is being held at the Golden Nugget Casino and Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada on January 10 - 14, 2010. Since the deadline for entry, as noted above and as noted in Moose Magazine and on the Website, was yesterday, if you haven't already entered and made arrangements to go to Las Vegas, you'll have to wait until next year to try your hand.

Meanwhile, keep you eyes peeled for the results of the Inaugural Tournament in Moose Magazine.

LATEST $50 O.S.M.A. GAS CARD WINNERS ANNOUNCED!

CONGRATULATIONS are in order to Stephanie Reed, Xenia Chapter 727 and to Sylvania Lodge 1579's William G. Milliere for their preferred member sponsor efforts and qualifying in mid-November for $50 Gas Cards in the Ohio State Moose Associations special membership campaign.

Some doubt has been cast, however, in the November 23rd announcement that James Ludwig, Newcomerstown 1337 is also a winner. Many have been heard to have shouted "THE FIX IS IN! THE FIX IS IN!"

Finally, the Results of the 12th Annual Director's Golf Tournament Are In!

CONGRATULATIONS are in orderWAIT A MINUTE! WAIT A MINUTE!

Didn't this annual event take place at the old Bucyrus Country Club back on September 12th? Over two months ago? And we're just now getting the results? QUESTION: How long does it take to compute the results of 18 four-man(or women) teams?

WHOA! Maybe that's not the problem. Tournament Chairman Jim Parker and his wife Ruthie were timely in reporting results -- as usual. The problem seems to lie (no pun intended) in confirmation!

RESULTS (According to Director Brown who swears it's the Gospel truth!)

1st Place - Hamilton 36 Team #2 Score - 56

(That's 16 under par -- count 'em!)

2nd Place - Hilliard 2236 Score - 58

(That's 14 under par -- count 'em!)

3rd Place TIE - Urbana 1115 and Director's Team Score - 59

(That's 13 under par - count 'em!)

The Confirmation Committee carefully scrutinized the score cards and determined that testimony ("We finished before they did!") by the Director's Team threw a dark cloud over the entire affair! Huh!

(P.S. Be sure to get your entries in for next year's event!)

Xenia Lodge 1629 and Chapter 727 Sponsor A "Different" Halloween Party for Kids!

Time passes so swiftly that we often find ourselves having to report on our activities long after they've taken place.

Xenia, this year, kicked off the Kids' Halloween Party with a hayride, a cake walk, a costume contest, music to dance by, good food, and a 'goody bag' to go!

RIGHT: The youngest entry was a 'Pooh Bear' just a few weeks old who edged out several other tots! FAR RIGHT: Pictured are three other age-group winners in the tots category.

Best of all, it was hard to tell whether the kids or their parents had the better time!

... more on next page

Who Has More Fun In Costume? Kids or Their Parents Who Dress Them Up?

ABOVE: Costume winners are imaginative in their garb and seem torn between posing as costume winners or snapping up the food. RIGHT: This little beauty makes no bones about it (or should that be 'dogs'? She obviously is ready to chomp down on that hot dog!

Xenia Lodge and Chapter members prove once again that all it takes for a successful event is to involve the entire family.
