What Does It Take To Become A State Board Member?

OK! I've been a Delegate and have been to Convention and plan to go to Mid-Year Conference in February, but I'd really like to go not just as a Delegate, representing my Lodge, but as a member of the State Board.

So how do I go about it?

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW . . .

- 1) A position on the State Board is a volunteer position.
- 2) You are required to attend up to six meetings per year.
- 3) All expenses are your own to bear, including your transportation and housing.
- 4) You must have a "burning desire" to serve in a particular position, for openings are few each year, and people with talent in those openings are the ones sought.

Send your resume of your Moose service to OSMA Secretary John R. Sipes, 731 Harding Way West, Galion 44833 or email him at . . .

secretary@ohiomoose.com

As openings develop from time to time, with your resume on file, you have a good chance to be appointed. Between now and then, you might want to seek out the present chairman of the committee you are interested in and volunteer your help.

Remember, the Association is constantly looking for people who display leadership talents in the many Board positions.

GOOD LUCK!

Dover Moose Lodge 707 Breaks Ground On New Lodge Home!

Just when even their own members had about written things off, members of Dover Lodge 707 pull off a great surprise by selling off their old Lodge Home (a.k.a. the old YMCA), buy new property, and break ground for the building of a new Lodge Home. Congratulations, men and women of Lodge 707!

Karaoke Contest Has Many Winners!

Let's start with the Karaoke team . . .

the crowd eagerly awaits the contestants!

Nah, these guys can't be contestants!

"Ted, I can't do this without a drink!"

Boy, Billie Wolf, you don't care with whom you team, right?

Linda Sipes would never be teamed up with Ron Johnson and Bob Goldsmith, or would she?

Columbus Chapter 206 repeats as State Champions in final Ohio WOTM Ritual Competition

by Joyce Schelling, Ritual Chairman

Columbus Chapter 206 ritualists staged a “repeat” as state champs in the final WOTM Ritual Competition held at Independence during the Annual Conference August 23-26. Four teams competed in the ‘Grand Finale’ for ritual competition. Final tabulations showed team scores as follows:

- Columbus 206 - 589.7500
- Springfield 429 - 585.8125
- Barberton 61 - 575.1250
- Hamilton 28 - 574.7500

As noted in the picture at the right, Peri Bush, Jr. Regent for Columbus 206 received the medallion for Outstanding Ritualist with her individual score of 99.0000.

Peggy Shinn of Nitro, West Virginia, served as floor judge for the competition. Serving on the State Ritual Committee were Sharlene LeBerth, Canton 332, Competition Chairman; Shirley Freshour, Springfield 429, Word Judge/Prompter; Diana Beamenderfer, Whitehall 865, Word Judge/Prompter; Maxine Walter, Bellevue 264, Assistant prompter; Marilyn Casto, Ravenna 540, Tabulator; Cindy House, Mogadore 852, Assistant Tabulator. Ohio WOTM Ritual Chairman Joyce Schelling and committee members presented each ritualist with a fresh, long-stemmed red roses as the teams were introduced at the awards ceremony during the Saturday evening banquet.

The WOTM Ritual

Committee wishes to extend a special “thank-you” to the Ohio State Moose Association Executive Board for its assistance and support over the years.

Since this was the final state competition, spanning the last ten years, Ritual Chairman Joyce Schelling and the Ritual Committee recognized all co-workers who participated as competing ritualists during this past decade. Special thanks also go to all who assisted on the ritual committee for these past several years.

Congratulations are extended to all ritualists, competitors or not, because they too competed for bringing the ‘Story of the Rose’ to our new co-workers. “I believe; You believe; We Believe!” in the Moose for Mooseheart and Moosehaven.
